Third-Ball Serves

These are serves that set up your attack and should make up the majority of your serves.

Topics covered include:

- How these serves develop your game
- Types of serves
- Creating spin
- Semicircular motion to disguise spin
- Fake follow-through
- Spin/no-spin serves
- Placement, depth, and height
- How to follow up

Trick Serves

These are serves designed to win the point directly, either with a miss or an easy pop-up. If used sparingly so opponents don't get used to them they are free points!

Serves covered include:

- Side-top that looks like backspin - the "Twitch" serve
- Backspin that looks like side-top or no-spin
- Fast no-spin and its placement
- Fast down-the-line - how to serve an ace
- Big breaking serves (pendulum and tomahawk)
- Reverse pendulum short to forehand
- Reverse backhand, tomahawk fast serve, and others!

Should I serve long? Short?
What spin? Where to?
Gosh, I wish I'd attended that
